<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interesting class, but I just wished we spend less time lecturing the readings and more on broadening our understanding of democratic transition. I feel like there have been repetitions with the readings. I really enjoy this class, in fact, it may have changed my major. It showed me that I was very interest in political science and international comparison of regimes and this is something I want to explore more in debts. Thank you very much for this semester. I've taken four classes with Professor Tatarczyk, and can say that he has been the a great instructor. His teaching methods have been effective, as I still am able to remember material from almost two years ago and apply it to my courses and overall comprehension of political science. Professor Tatarczyk has explicitly made clear through his courses that his mission as an instructor is to help the students as best as he can. I highly recommend my peers to take his courses because Professor Tatarczyk is straightforward, clear, and helpful in his teaching methods. For this same reason, I hope that other Albion students get the opportunity I had of taking one of Professor Tatarczyk's courses in years to come at Albion.
